

Of Greater Milwaukee

Membership in the Loose Bead Society is open to anyone who is obsessed with beading....

... or wirework, lamp work, silver clay, fibers or polymer clay. We string beads and weave beads; crochet, embroider, and knit them; we follow instructions and break rules (along with a few needles.) Our members range from beginners to nationally known designers and teachers.

We're loose beads—won't you join us?

Why Join?

If networking with other bead fanatics isn't enough, consider these benefits:

- Relevant programs that expand your knowledge and resources
- Discounts and private shopping nights at area bead stores
- Participation in the Bead&Button Show
- Quarterly newsletter, website, and member directory
- Annual bead retreat – Escape reality for a delightful long weekend of classes, open beading and camaraderie! Exchange techniques and tips, bead stories and laughter. (A modest fee is charged.)

Thinking of joining? You're invited to attend one meeting as a guest.

Dues

Just $24.00 annually, renewable in January. Prorated dues of $12.00 are offered the first year of membership for those who join after June 1st.

Where & When

Meetings are held the third Monday of the month at the New Berlin Public Library*, 15105 Library Lane, New Berlin. Directions are on our website.

AGENDA

6:30-7:00pm Informal networking
7:00-7:15pm Business meeting
7:15-8:45pm Program

* As part of our educational mission, we occasionally hold meetings where the beads are! Watch the newsletter or check our website for updates.

Name

Address

City, State, Zip

Home Phone

Work Phone (if you'd like to provide it)

E-mail

Do you have a bead business?

Company Name

Website

- Renewal
 New Membership

Amount Enclosed

Please make checks payable to LBS and mail your application and check to

Loose Bead Society of Greater Milwaukee
PO Box 35
Brookfield, WI 53008-0035